

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary, which contains factually incorrect information about the candidate, days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I strongly feel this action by Sinclair is totally unjust and NOT in the public interest. I urge the FCC to stop this programming.